Gulliver's is a charming, elegant and tranquil Georgian Townhouse in central Brighton, located on the picturesque New Steine square. Following recent refurbishment, the Gullivers has re-opened with a mix of baroque and contemporary design incorporating a unique attention to detail and the most personal and friendly of service.

From the moment you arrive to your departure, you will be truly looked after. During check-in you can take in the relaxing surroundings of our Gulliver's Lounge and Hallways - surrounded by original artwork and caricature murals you will be personally shown to your bedroom and all the facilities your room has to offer will be explained.

BEDROOMS

Peaceful, quiet and a retreat from the city bustle, our cosy bedrooms provide the ideal place to muse over your day, at the end of which you can sleep comfortably in the knowledge that everything has been taken care of. These rooms are well equipped to give a feeling of relaxed luxury.

Each of the bedrooms has been designed to incorporate comfort with modern needs, such as Direct Dial Telephones, Free Wireless Internet access, desk space for paperwork and/or in room dining, Hairdryers, Flatscreen LCD TV's with up to 45 channels offering News, Entertainment, Music and Children's programmes, Tea/Coffee making facilities and luxury toiletries.

Its' attention is in the understated contemporary chic, with the softest pillows, contemporary decor, original art work and murals carefully selected, deluxe rooms, some with views of the sea & the New Steine square - every last detail has been carefully considered and your good night's sleep is assured.

A personalised concierge service is at the guests' disposal 24 hours a day for all requirements and needs, restaurant suggestions and bookings, airline reservations, as well as night out recommendations in Brighton, from cosy cocktail bars to trendy nightclubs.

Single rooms from £35.00 and Doubles from £49. Please see the website for availability and prices.

RESTAURANT

The New Steine Bistro is our own restaurant, which caters for snacks throughout the day and evening meals, 7 days a week. Offering homemade French cuisine along with British fare, with either a full a la carte menu or daily 3 course special menu, it is the perfect place to enjoy exquisite food in a welcoming environment.

We also have available for hire a selection of conference rooms with full facilities, with a capacity up to 55 people theatre style, which can be hired out on a room only basis, or on a selection of Day and 24 Hour delegate rates.

Our up-to-the-minute booking system enables you to check the availability of your reservation date immediately and offers booking in numerous languages and currencies. See the website for more details.

The New Steine Bistro, located at our sister hotel 2 doors down, has been awarded the AA Breakfast and Dinner Award for outstanding quality and service
